

Decision on District Plan Changes

As of 2 December 2009, the Queenstown Lakes District Council has made a decision on the following Plan Changes to the Queenstown Lakes District Plan:

Plan Change 25 – Kingston Village Special Zone

To rezone an area of Rural General land to create a special zone providing for the future growth of Kingston township by enabling the development of a range of different residential housing types, visitor accommodation activities, community facilities and providing an area of employment land for business activities. The special zone includes a detailed structure plan of the plan change area.
