Hi,

Koko Ridge Limited is working its way through the content of the Council's right of reply.

However, we have already noticed that matters agreed in a pre-hearing conference have been reversed by the Council with respect to the release of its s32AA report and the report of Jeff Brown.

Koko Ridge has been prejudiced by the conduct of the Council's case in that Koko Ridge has not called evidence on the basis that matters were agreed at pre-hearing meetings. That has prejudiced my client's position significantly.

These concerns will be outlined full in a procedural memorandum to be provided to the Panel following our full review and the public holiday falling next week.

Kindly refer this email to the Panel.

Regards,
KR
